REQUEST TO ADD NICKNAME ON LICENSE

Your legal name is required to be on file with the LREC and printed on your license. A nickname may be added; however, it must always be used in conjunction with your legal last name.

Nickname as you wish for it to appear on your license:

By signature below, I hereby authorize the Louisiana Real Estate Commission to make the requested name change. I understand that all advertising, marketing campaigns, and license activities cannot be conducted in any name(s) other than that listed on my license. If the requested name change does not meet the requirements of the license law and rules and regulations of the commission, I understand that this request may be denied until such time that the name change is in compliance.
